OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

William Keesling is a registered representative of Securities America, Inc. (SAI), a full-service broker/dealer, member FINRA/SIPC. When placing securities transactions through SAI in his capacity as a registered representative, he will earn commissions. This presents a conflict of interest since Mr. Keesling will receive fees and commissions if you choose to implement recommendations of Mr. Keesling in his capacity as registered representative. Because Mr. Keesling is a dually registered agent of SAI and Verus, SAI has certain supervisory and administrative duties pursuant to the requirements of NASD Conduct Rule 3040.

Additionally, as registered representative, Mr. Keesling will also receive compensation from mutual fund sales loads, 12(b) – 1 distribution fees, variable annuity sales commissions or trail commissions. The 12(b) – 1 distribution fees, sales charges and other fee arrangements will be disclosed upon your request and are typically described in the applicable fund and/or annuity prospectus. Any fees or other compensation received by Mr. Keesling in his separate capacities as registered representative will be received to the extent permitted by applicable law. This activity represents more than 10% of Mr. Keesling's time and income.

Mr. Keesling also has a relationship with SAA, an SEC registered investment advisor, who will provide back office and administrative support services to Verus. When doing so, SAA will receive a portion of the management fee or an administrative fee for the services provided.

Mr. Keesling holds insurance licenses to sell limited insurance products. It is anticipated that a portion, more than 10% of his time will be spent providing these insurance products. Mr. Keesling will receive compensation from selling insurance products and therefore receive economic benefit for this activity. This activity may create a conflict of interest with clients. The receipt of commissions for selling insurance or securities products gives Mr. Keesling an incentive to recommend investment products based on the compensation received.

ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

From time to time, Mr. Keesling may receive expense reimbursement for travel and/or marketing expenses from distributors of investment and/or insurance products. Travel expense reimbursements are typically a result of attendance at due diligence and/or investment training events hosted by product sponsors. Marketing expense reimbursements are typically the result of informal expense sharing arrangements in which product sponsors may underwrite costs incurred for marketing such as advertising, publishing and seminar expenses. Although receipt of these travel and marketing expense reimbursements are not predicated upon specific sales quotas, the product sponsor reimbursements are typically made by those sponsors for whom sales have been made or it is anticipated sales will be made.
